

Tina Castro

Tina Castro is the Director of Mission Related Investments for The California Endowment where she is responsible for making investments that align strong financial return with meaningful innovation and social impact. Currently she is leading TCE's effort to develop the CA FreshWorks Fund, a public-private partnership loan fund to finance grocery stores and other forms of fresh food retail and distribution in underserved communities throughout CA. Prior to joining TCE, Tina worked in the Investment Management Division of Goldman Sachs. She currently serves on the boards of the Los Angeles Conservation Corp, the UCLA Anderson Alumni Association, Los Angeles Social Venture Partners, and the Los Angeles Latino International Film Festival. Tina graduated cum laude from the University of Colorado at Boulder with a Bachelor of Arts in International Affairs and later attended the University of Miami, earning her first Master's Degree in International Relations with a focus in International Business. She subsequently attended UCLA Anderson School of Management, earning her second Master's Degree, an MBA with a focus in Finance. She is also currently a CFA Level II candidate. Prior to pursuing her graduate studies and joining Goldman Sachs, Tina worked as a freelance photographer. She and her husband, Amir, live in Sherman Oaks, CA.