

In South Kern we will Improve Pre-K to Adult Education with Preparation and Local Access to College/University Programs

We Promise: By July 1, 2015, we will ensure students in South Kern are healthier by supporting parent-school partnerships to improve school culture and environments to make them safer, healthier, and more supportive of the success of all students.

Result to Achieve by 7/1/2015	Goals for 2020
Fifteen South Kern parents are continuing and expanding their role as leaders and advocates for student health by participating in District Wellness Committees.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Parents and youth partner with teachers and educational Institutions to promote children’s success. ➤ Child development programs will help parents and children be prepared to enter kindergarten. ➤ Student academic success in local schools will increase.
Twenty South Kern parents are actively and meaningfully engaged in creating a school culture of authentic and meaningful parent involvement and leadership, and school funding policies that support student success for all students.
Twenty South Kern Parents are engaged, in partnership with school district, are creating safer and more supportive school environments through individual advocacy and broad-level engagement.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Youth have positive and supportive environments and are learning and exhibiting positive behavior.
Ten Schools in South Kern have established alternative positive discipline models in partnership with parents.
Through a partnership with local colleges and high schools, student pathways to higher education will be strengthened and South Kern youth participation in college will increase by 10%.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ South Kern has a college-bound culture.